CAPABILITY NARRATIVE

Heroic Hazard LLC is a Prototyping company that utilizes additive manufacturing as well as years of aircraft maintenance experience to assist with the design and creation of prototype project components at a moment's notice. It's also capable of handling small batch, low volume specialized manufacturing of engineering grade thermoplastic and carbon reinforced nylon components for the automotive, aerospace, and defense industries. Heroic Hazard turns engineering drawings and CAD files into tangible prototypes and products through collaborative conversations and industry experience.
